The John H. Stedman Passion for the Social Studies Teaching Award

The John H. Stedman Passion for the Social Studies Teaching Award is an annual award given by the Connecticut Council for the Social Studies (CCSS) in honor of the late John H. Stedman, a long-time member of CCSS, a distinguished teacher, and an all around great human-being. John is remembered by his students, colleagues, and friends as a person with incredible talent, humor, and an unsurpassed passion for teaching not only social studies, but life's lessons. It is with these traits in mind that CCSS invites nominations for a teaching award in honor of John. This award is special in that nominations may come only from students.

The guidelines are as follows:

- Nominations are for social studies teachers, grades 6-12.
- Nominations may come from individual students or groups of students.
- Students must fill out a nomination form and include a one-page letter explaining why they believe their social studies teacher is deserving of the John Stedman Award. (If a group of students is joining together for a nomination, each may write a one-page supporting letter. Letters that are more than one-page will not be considered.)
- The Award will be determined based solely on letters from students, so write well and convince CCSS that your teacher is someone special in the classroom and out.
- Nominations are open from March through May 1.
- The Award will be announced in early May and the winner honored at the CCSS annual dinner in May.
- Nomination forms are available on the CCSS website:
<http://www.ctsocialstudies.org/>
- Please email or mail nominations and letters of support to:

PTO fundraiser – Bar class

Friday May 6th 7pm

Cost: $8 all proceeds go to Goodwin PTO

Class description: Adapted from ballet and other various schools of dance Barre is a full body workout that specifically engages core musculature throughout the execution of each exercise. Attention is given to precise form and technique. Typically very light (or no) dumbbells are used to target smaller muscle groups such as biceps, triceps and shoulders and bodyweight is utilized to target thighs, glutes and calves. With regular attendance students can expect to see reshaping of their body: lengthening, lifting and strengthening all around. Although not overly cardiovascular in nature, students can expect to raise their heartrates moderately during class and lightly sweat. No previous experience necessary. Loose comfortable clothing and grippy ankle socks recommended.

The instructor: Keri Jenkins is personal fitness trainer, group exercise instructor & nutritionist that focuses on the mindbody connection. She lives in Mansfield with her husband, a professor and two children Mady (8) and Luke (17 months)

FACE PAINTING & TATTOOS

Goodwin School | Hunting Lodge Road

Dear Kindergarten through 2nd Grade Families:

I just wanted to clarify a misprint on a flyer that was sent in the Electronic Backpack for our upcoming Spring Concerts. The upcoming musical performance that is scheduled for Tuesday, May 17th at 6:30 pm is NOT, in fact, a performance of The Granny Awards. (That happens to be the title of the musical that 3rd and 4th graders are doing this year.) The K-2 students will be performing a combined concert on that night. Sorry for the typo!

Sincerely,

Miss Whiteley
