Health District Monitors Ebola Virus

The Eastern Highlands Health District (EHHD) is monitoring the Ebola virus issue under the guidance and direction of the Connecticut Department of Public Health. The EHHD is providing information and support to the municipal governments, communities, and public school districts it serves. Those communities include the towns of Andover, Ashford, Bolton, Chaplin, Columbia, Coventry, Mansfield, Tolland, Willington, and Scotland. The EHHD is also in close communication with Student Health Services at the University of Connecticut.

For links to information regarding the Ebola virus, please visit the Eastern Highlands Health District website at <http://www.ehhd.org/>. The EHHD will periodically update this information.

Residents may contact the Eastern Highlands Health District at (860) 429-3325 or ehhd@ehhd.org for more information regarding this topic.
