

Town of Mansfield Community Quality of Life Committee
Thursday, July 14, 2011
Draft Minutes

Present: Moran, Chair; Kueffner; Morse; Keane; Long; Saddlemire

Staff: Hart; Capriola; Nintean; Hintz; Dagon

Call to Order: Chairperson Moran called meeting to order at 7:02 pm

1. Appointment of Recording Secretary: Morse declared he would not volunteer due to a) taking minutes was not part of the job description of being a member of the committee, and b) the Town should hire someone to take minutes if it can afford to build UConn a fantasy town. Hintz volunteered.
2. Approval of May 5, 2011 Minutes: Passed Unanimously. Chairperson Moran noted that the Town Planner, Linda Painter would be at the August meeting.
3. Opportunity to Address the Public: None.
4. Chairperson's Report: None.
5. Communications: None.
6. Old Business:
 - a. Police Services Study: Hart and Capriola lead a discussion about the Police Services Study. Hart explained the Town was seeking feedback on the study to present to Town Council. Extensive discussion occurred. Capriola scribed comments on flipchart paper. Members were provided a feedback form. An electronic version will be emailed to members. The group did not take a collective stance on any one option.
 - b. Review Action Plan: Chairperson Moran asked that this item be on all future agendas and the group would update as needed.
7. New Business:
 - a. Nuisance Ordinance: Hart informed the committee that Town Council unanimously passed a nuisance ordinance.
 - b. Upcoming Meetings: Morse informed the committee that a program on transition towns will be July 26 at the Town Hall and the Council of Environmental Quality will be meeting on July 27 at 5pm in the Town Hall.
 - c. Update M CCP Grant: Workshops on how to address irresponsible party hosting for area Landlords and area Police Officers will be conducted in late-July and mid-August. The grant subcommittee is meeting to develop the fall activities and campaign for students.
8. Adjournment: Unanimously adjourned at 8:48pm.

Respectfully submitted by
Jim Hintz, recording secretary
