3. No Public Comments

4. No Public Correspondence

5. Pending Artwork

Scott Rhodes works were reviewed and approved. Kim will contact him.
Kim will also call Fred Massicotte to confirm and arrange a date to display.
The Lenards' portrait needs their approval to display.

6. Rev. Dr. Martin Luther King, Jr. Mural Project Update

Emida Roller has been selected as the artist for the project. The first paint Day will be held next Monday, Oct. 11 in the pavilion outside the Mansfield Public Library, 12-5:00. The details of the paint day will be finalized at this Friday's zoom meeting of the mural committee at 11:00. Those of us on the committee are expected to volunteer. A second paint day will be held at UConn for students on Wed. the 13th. The completed mural will be installed the weekend of October 30, with a public unveiling ceremony on Monday evening, Nov. 1st.

7. The Art of Flowers Program Updates

The flower arranging class last Sat. morning at Stix 'n Stones was well-attended, and there are 13 artists, each working on a still life of the arrangement. Said arrangement is still on display in the CC lobby. Applications for display and the submission works are due by Wed. Oct. 27th.

8. Future Agendas

Our regular November meeting will be moved up a few days in order to approve The Art of Flowers submissions, and attend to our regular agenda. Bethany will look into the feasibility of an in-person meeting inside a larger space at the community center, and will let us know. Otherwise we will review the submissions via zoom, as has been our method recently.

Meeting adjourned at 5:58 P.M.

PLEASE NOTE: Next regular meeting to be held Wednesday, November 3, 2021 at 5:00pm

Respectfully submitted,
Judy McChesney
